DISTRESS SIGN IS HOISTED BY SORELY BESET ARMY OF KING

BULGARS THROW UP THE SPONGE

Forced to Appeal to the Powers to Arrange Peace.

END OF TWO WEEKS OF CARNAGE

Cry Enough When the Servians and Greeks Succeed in Combining Their Armies and Rumania Begins Invasion of Bulgaria—Peace Must Now Be Negotiated On an Entirely New Basis.

London, July 11. — The end of a fortnight's desperate fighting in the Balkans finds Bulgaria forced to appeal to the powers to arrange peace.

The Bulgarian plan to drive a wedge between the Greek and Servian armies in the neighborhood of Guevgheli has completely failed. The last reports of the fighting, received from Athens, show that the Servians and Greeks at this point are combining their forces, while the Rumanian army is beginning an invasion of Bulgaria.

The latter fact doubtless was the deciding factor in the Bulgarian appeal to the powers. How far Bulgaria's defeat is due to dissensions in high military quarters, which resulted in the resignation of General Savoff, and how far to the fact that the Bulgarian troops, which bore the brunt of the hard fighting in the last campaign, were more exhausted than the Greek and Servian forces, will probably never be known.

Nothing can be predicted at the moment as to how events will shape themselves, the Rumanian invasion of Bulgaria having brought an entirely new factor into the problem. Russia and France are devoting their efforts to persuading the allies to adopt a moderate attitude, in order to facilitate a peaceful settlement.

The Servian premier is quoted as declaring that the new war has completely set aside all treaties of alliance, and that peace must now be negotiated on an entirely new basis.

DAVID'S TURN

BEFORE GRAND JURY

Case of David Lamar, Self-Confessed Lobbyist, Given Airing.

New York, July 11. — The government took the first steps in the prosecution of David Lamar, the self-confessed lobbyist. The federal grand jury began the inquiry which United States Attorney Marshall purposes to use as the groundwork for a criminal indictment against Lamar. Lewis Cass Ledyard, the lawyer and adviser of the house of Morgan, appeared voluntarily before the grand jury and occupied three hours in describing how Lamar had personated Representative A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania and Representative Daniel J. Riordan of this city.

WANT HIM KEPT

Washington, July 11. — The Dominican government has urged on Secretary of State Bryan the retention in office of W. E. Pulliam, until recently receiver general of the Dominican customs under the terms of the treaty by which the United States acts as a receiver of the Dominican revenues and pays the republic's expenses. The president has already appointed Walter E. Vick to succeed Mr. Pulliam.

BULGARIANS ON THE FIRING LINE AND SERVANS STARTING FOR FRONT IN LATEST BALKAN CONFLICT

These pictures illustrate two sides of the war of the Balkan allies. In one Bulgarians are shown with their field artillery at the front. Note the small type of canon, easy to manage in difficult country. The other picture shows Servians starting for the front, as ready to die in this falling out of friends as they were to give battle to the Turks. The death toll among Bulgarians and Servians is reported heavy.

He will leave Washington a week from Saturday on a six weeks' speaking trip in the middle west. It was announced that the secretary of state is going on the Chautauqua circuit. It is expected that John Bassett Moore, the diplomatic expert and counselor of the state department, will be in charge at Washington during Mr. Bryan's absence.

Jack Johnson, Negro Pugilist, Will Fight In Europe.

Paris, July 11. — Jack Johnson, the American negro pugilist, with his white wife, his nephew and three negro servants, is at the Terminus hotel here. He described with infinite zest how he escaped from Chicago. He says he mingled with a colored baseball team which was leaving the city after having played a match. He secured an uncoupled seat in the car and a good friend of his at Toronto arranged the rest.

The negro pugilist was very indignant over the treatment he received in America, and said: "A black man has no chance to get justice there." He declared that his prosecution in Chicago was an attempt to railroad him out of the championship by giving him a term of imprisonment. He said that he has no intention of returning to America, and added: "I shall never fight there again."

His plans include the establishment in Europe of a health farm, something like Muldoon's in New York state. He says he possesses a patent for a medicine which is a perfect cure for nervous troubles. Johnson expects to fight McCoy, Falzer, Langford and Carpenter, if the latter acquires enough weight by fall.

SUFFRAGET'S CONFESSION

Liverpool, England, July 11. — Mrs. Edith Rigby, wife of a physician at Preston and a militant suffraget, declared in court it was she who last Tuesday burned down the country residence at Rivington, near Horwich, Lancashire, of Sir William H. Lever, causing damage estimated at $100,000. She further confessed to being the perpetrator of the outrage at the Liverpool stock exchange July 5, when a bomb exploded, but caused little damage.

Relations Between Capital and Labor and All Efforts Both Have Made to Secure Legislation Which Would

Aired—Labor Leaders and Manufacturers' Officials to Testify.

Washington, July 11. — All the wars that have been fought between labor and capital, all the efforts that both have made to secure legislation which would profit them, and the tangled skein about their relations in the last 10 years, are to be investigated by congress.

The senate lobby committee, in executive session, decided that the war must be inquired into. Samuel Gomper, president of the American Federation of Labor, will appear before the committee July 27 and a subpoena was issued for John Mitchell, vice president and former head of the United Mine Workers. At the same time the committee subpoenaed George Pope and J. P. Bird, general manager of the National Association of Manufacturers.

As the tale is unfolded other men prominent in either labor organizations or the association of manufacturers, or individual employers of labor who are brought to notice, will be asked to appear.

The committee decided to look into this subject, believing that it may develop information and knowing it will extend their inquiry many weeks. One senator said that the quest might reach back into some of the dark corners of the McNamara dynamite case, and might bring into the light the inside story of many of the great strikes of the past.

The committee expects to finish with its investigation of wool and sugar activities today. Next it will take up the charges made by Martin M. Mulhall, former lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers. Thousands of letters, involving many men who once were prominent in congress, as well as some still in public life, have been furnished the committee, and his examination may take several days.

MARS' HENRY FLOPS

WATTERSON TALKS

Estranged From Wilson the Man He Praises Wilson the President.

New York, July 11. — Colonel Henry Watterson of Kentucky considers himself permanently estranged from Woodrow Wilson the man, but that doesn't prevent him from believing that Wilson the president is making good. "Our break was complete and final," the colonel said. "Our friendship is a closed chapter, but," he quickly added, "we've got to admit that he has beaten those Democratic politicians in Washington to a pulp. A man of great ability and intrepidity, he has thus far handled his end of the business argument with success."

Attorney General Causes Charges of Forgery To Be Filed at Newark Against a Cincinnati Man — Thirty Thousand Signatures to Referendum
Petition Alleged by Governor Cox
To Be Fraudulent.

Columbus, O., July 11. — Following further investigation by the attorney general's department as to frauds in obtaining signatures to referendum petitions on the Green compulsory workmen's compensation law, William Martin of Cincinnati was arrested in that city and brought to Columbus. He was served with a warrant charging him with perjury. The affidavit was sworn to by Charles G. Marshall, one of the assistants to Attorney General Hogan.

Martin circulated petitions in Hamilton, Champaign, Clark, Miami, Delaware and Greene counties. Practically all the signatures on the petitions which he filed are alleged to be forgeries. Whole petitions are said to be made up of either fictitious names and addresses or from election poll books.

Martin was formerly a member of the Cincinnati police force. He was indicted on a blackmail charge by Prosecutor Hunt. "They have me charged with perjury, so they'll have to prove it," he said while in his cell. "I am not guilty. They will have to prove that the signatures to my petition are false. They're supposed to be genuine—I think they are."

Martin, who is 45 years old, gave his occupation as investigator. It is understood that he is a sort of private detective and bill collector.

Hogan Files Charges.

That the state shall be fortified beyond any possible chance of miscarriage in prosecution of alleged frauds, apparently is the aim of the attorney general, who caused charges of forgery to be filed at Newark against Walter A. Vincent of Cincinnati. Vincent is now in jail in Columbus on a charge of perjury. In case the perjury charges fall Vincent will be tried at Newark on the forgery charge.

Governor Cox announced he had evidence that practically all of the

$20,000 DAMAGE CASE DRAWS TO CLOSE TODAY

Alleged Fraudulent Manipulation of Huge Copper Company's Affairs is Grounds Alleged by Plaintiff.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT IN FAVOR OF THE DEFENDANT

Former President of Verde Grande Copper Company, C. P. West of Bloomington Is Defendant in Action Brought by Stockholder Who Puts Forth Claim That He Was Worsted When the Plant of Old Company Was Disposed Of.

Final arguments were made in the case of E. W. Hersh against C. P.
West Thursday evening, and the case went to the jury Friday morning.

After being out fifteen minutes the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, the evidence failing to show where the plaintiff had been worsted.

This is the case in which the plaintiff, a stockholder in the erstwhile Verde Grande Copper Company, brought action in the Common Pleas court asking for $20,000 damages from the defendant for alleged fraudulent manipulation of the company's affairs for his individual profit.

It has been one of the most important cases tried in this county for years, and has been full of interest from start to finish.

The suit was filed September 9, 1910, and in his petition the plaintiff, who claims to have held 21,000 shares of stock in the Verde Grande Copper Company, headquarters at St.
Louis, charges that the defendant was former president of the concern, and a heavy stock holder, and that by banding with others they brought the company down to a sale of its plant, located at Sonora, Mexico, and that the plaintiff was not aware of the contemplated sale, or the sale itself until some time afterward, when the Hermosillo Copper Company, of which he alleges the defendant is a large stockholder, owned the plant and his (the defendant's) stock was worthless, while the new concern was worth approximately $750,000.

He sought the recovery of $20,000 damages, which he alleges is due him as a result of the transaction.

Gregg and Gregg, together with Attorney Andrews of Illinois represented the plaintiff while the defendant was represented by F. A. Chaffin and Judge Joseph Wheelock, of St.
Louis.

The case has been on trial all week the better part of two days being occupied by the reading of depositions taken from a number of those interested in the concern.

Former Probate Judge J. L. Zimmerman has been prominently associated with the copper company in question, and is still prominently connected with the Hermosillo Company, which is reputed to be worth many hundreds of thousands of dollars. Some interesting evidence was brought out during the trial.

The defendant is one of the county's best known agriculturists, residing on his large farm two miles northeast of Bloomington, and has for many years been president of the Bloomington bank and has an excellent reputation for honesty.

TRAVELING MAN PAYS HIS BILLS

Hal Walsh, traveling for the Two In One Shoe Polish company of Buffalo, N. Y., who was arrested in Chillicothe a week ago and brought here to face a charge of not paying his board bill at the Cherry Hotel, received money from his company and made settlement in full Friday morning, whereupon he was released from the county jail and went on his way.

It cost Walsh nearly $50 to square accounts here, but he paid every-cent, costs included, thanked Sheriff Nelson for the courtesy shown during his imprisonment, and walked forth a free man.

The receipt of the money from his company substantiates his claim that he would have paid the bill if his salary check had been on time.

MAN WASN'T CRAZY WAS TOO WARM

An incident somewhat out of the ordinary is related by the Chillicothe Gazette, which says:

A shocking incident happened on east-bound B. & O. train No. 4 a short distance west of this city Wednesday afternoon. A man on the train, who was supposed to be an actor, proceeded to take off all of his clothing and threw them out of the window, together with his watch and money.

The conductor in charge of the train telegraphed to the local offices and asked that an officer be at the station when the train arrived to take him into custody. None of the B. & O. officers could be located at the time, and the police station was called and requested to have an officer at the train. Officer Hamm was sent to the station, and when the train arrived he found the man in the coach attired in a frock tailed coat and wooden shoes, peacefully continuing his journey. As there was apparently nothing wrong with him,
Mr. Hamm left him on the train.
What the cause of his deed was is not known, but it could hardly have been caused by the heat.

MORIARTY BEST PEGGER.

So Says Del Gainer, the Tigers' First Baseman.

Del Gainer of the Detroit team believes that George Moriarty has the best infield peg of any man in the game today.

The Tiger first baseman says that George's throws from third are the easiest that he has ever handled or ever watched.

Moriarty whips straight as a die. He has plenty of steam behind his pegs, but he throws a light ball. It doesn't tear a hand off the first baseman trying to catch it with a light glove, as do the throws of some infielders.

George always takes as much time to make his throws as he can. Oftentimes he seems too deliberate. However, he always times his throw well, and if there is a chance to get his man
Moriarty will do it.

Also George almost always throws the ball, taking a chance when other men would hold the ball rather than risk a wild throw.

ASSESSORS WILL BE ELECTED AT FALL ELECTION

Complications arising from the passage of the Warnes tax law by the last legislature, and the fact that a referendum vote is to be taken on the measure in November, which, if defeated, would leave the entire state without means of appraising taxable property, led County Auditor Edmondson of Cincinnati, Hamilton county, to announce yesterday that a full list of candidates for assessor would be placed on the ticket in November.

Mr. Edmondson was asked by the Board of Elections yesterday as to what ought to be the method of procedure, and he replied that a ticket should be nominated. The list of candidates to be voted on in November, following this announcement, will comprise an assessor for each ward, and a Board of Quadrennial Appraisers, consisting of five members, 1914 being the year for the making of the quadrennial appraisement. The members of this board draw $1800 a year each.

Under the Warnes law the appraisal of property is vested in two County Tax Assessors, appointed by the governor. They have full power to make the tax appraisal and authority to hire as much help as necessary. This law will come up for a referendum vote in November, and in case it should be defeated the state would be without properly elected assessors.

GAME WARDENS BUSY ONCE MORE

Game wardens are becoming active in surrounding counties, and it is hinted that they have been investigating conditions in this county again. Down in Ross the last man arrested had a full equipment of illegal fishing paraphernalia, and it cost him $25 to square himself with the law. The deputies are now searching for other equipment along Paint creek, and have been tipped off that there are a number of persons who may be caught with their own net.

Over in Green county an investigation is being made of dynamiting in Caesar creek. A few arrests have been made in connection with the dynamiting, and fines of $50 to $100 and the costs have been assessed against the men.

So far as known there has been little illegal fishing in this county this summer.

LARRY LAJOIE

ager Birmingham declares that the reason he benched Lajoie was because his broken hands had caused him to slump in his work. In fifty-three games this season he batted .327 and fielded .965. Detroit, it is understood, offered Sam Crawford or Bobby Veach or a fair sum of money in exchange for Larry. Jennings figures that with Lajoie batting behind Ty Cobb the hit and run play, a forgotten item in the Tigers' attack, would be revived.

As a purely mechanical baseball player Lajoie was a wonder—is still, compared to some in the big league. Time was when the issue between himself and Hans Wagner as to which was the greatest baseball player in the world was on everyone's lips; and many gave Larry the palm.

But Daddy Time's scythe cuts them all down to the common level and the once "greatest of all" has lived to be ordered to the bench by a former player, who was just big league class and that's all.

Defining the Lobby

The general run of people have always looked upon a "lobby" as a pernicious thing.

In the days when the "lobby" was most active and the most effective producer of results few could be found to speak a good word for the system of maintaining agents and representatives in the various capitals for the purpose of securing the enactment of favorable legislation or preventing the enactment of legislation which was regarded as detrimental.

Large manufacturing and other interests made a business of looking after legislation.

Now when the lobby is being successfully attacked and driven into the discard the congressional investigations and the suggestions of remedies as a result of those investigations, develop that there is such a thing as a good lobby and that a certain kind of a lobby is really necessary.

Really that is not the disclosure of a new fact. It is rather the including in the present day definition of lobby those organizations which were not included in the definition which the public generally had written for "lobby" before the present attack was launched.

In attempting to define just what activity in the way of promoting or restraining legislation, is objectionable, the law makers, it seems have been compelled to frame a code which, if broad enough to include, and restrain the pernicious activities of the special interests, restrains all activities.

It is a difficult task indeed which the legislative bodies of the land, and the National House of Representatives is only one of these, faces in attempting to frame and apply a rule of exclusion which will not work a hardship.

The general public is puzzled in the meantime with a realization that there are "lobbies" within the meaning of the law which are not detrimental in their effect on the public welfare.

Splendid Crop Conditions

Every indication now points, it seems unerringly, to bumper crops for this section of the nation.

The wheat which is just now beginning to come into the local markets is of a splendid quality and from all parts of the county come reports that the excellent quality is general. The yield too, is much greater than it was supposed it would be by even the most optimistic farmers.

The wheat crop which always means much to Fayette county is particularly important this year for a number of reasons, among which are, the large acreage this year sown to wheat and the fact that there has been a very considerable shortage of cattle and hogs during the last two years.

The wheat crop comes at that time of year when, if good, it is a strong bridge which carries the farmer over that long period which must always intervene until the big fall harvest rolls around in turn.

Never was, farmers say, the prospect for corn better—never has the crop looked better or healthier at this time of year than it does right now. The hot dry June weather has, the experts say, been just the proper kind for the corn crop during that period of its growth. The hay is made and in quantity and quality is reported to be unsurpassed.

All this means that the snug little county of Fayette—an empire in and of itself, will prosper and grow during the next twelve months. It means that those who depend upon the bounty of mother earth for their existence, whether in field or in store or in shop are blessed with present prosperity and bright promises for future return from the great store house of the universe.

The sun has shown, the rain has come without our special understanding.

Man is content to take the fruits of his toil which nature returns to him and not ask the reason why. This year those returns have been prodigally abundant both in the crops of the present and in the promise for the future.

All should pause long enough in the wholesome enjoyment of the bountiful harvest, each one in his own proper way, to give thanks for the blessings which have been sent to us.

Peace Maintained by Governments

By ELIHU ROOT, United States Senator From New York

WE hear much of peace today, but let me tell you the peace of the world is MAINTAINED BY THE GREAT GOVERNMENTS OF THE WORLD.

IT IS NOT THE GOVERNMENTS, BUT THE PEOPLES, FROM WHOM THE DANGER OF WAR COMES TODAY AND WILL ALWAYS COME SO LONG AS THEY FAIL TO EXERCISE PROPER SELF RESTRAINT AND THE COURTESY THAT THE PEACE OF THE WORLD DEMANDS.

We in America must learn that we CANNOT CONTINUE A POLICY OF PEACE WITH INSULT. We must learn civility. We must learn that when an American sovereign speaks of the affairs of a foreign nation he must observe those rules of courtesy by which alone the peace of the world can be maintained.

Poetry For Today

NOW.

If you have hard work to do,
Do it now.
Today the skies are clear and blue,
Tomorrow clouds may come in view.
Yesterday is not for you;
Do it now.

If you have a song to sing,
Sing it now.
Let the notes of gladness ring
Clear as song of bird in spring.
Let every day some music bring;
Sing it now.

If you have kind words to say,
Say them now.
Tomorrow may not come your way,
Do a kindness while you may,
Loved ones will not always stay;
Say them now.

If you have a smile to show,
Show it now.
Make hearts happy, roses grow,
Let the friends around you know
The love you have before they go.
Show it now.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

October 13, 1870.

Mr. James A. McLean, county surveyor, has furnished us with the following particulars of a sad affair which occurred in Concord township. Uriah Binegar, aged 19, and another young man named Rowe, were coon hunting on the farm of Wm. Waddle. About 2 o'clock they treed a coon in a burr oak about 20 inches in diameter. Rowe cut the tree about half way off when it split off about 15 feet and was thrown back. Binegar was stooping down about 15 feet from the tree, holding two of their dogs, and the tree fell on him, striking him on the head, mashing his skull and killing him instantly.

Lost dog: A yellowish brindle colored shepherd dog, long bushy tail, white tip, white belly and breast, white legs and white around neck. Is lame in the ankle. He is suspected of being in the neighborhood of Humphrey Hidy farm. I will pay a good reward for his return. I can be found at Millikan's mill. Dennis Brown.

Married: By Hon. Mills Gardner at the residence of the bride's father in Washington on the 13th of October, 1870. Mr. J. G. Harper and Miss Clara Crone. We are sufficiently grateful for the dollar greenback that accompanied the above joyful notice. Congratulations to the happy couple, a long life and a prosperous one.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

The first international motion picture exposition opened this week in the new Grand Central Palace in New York City. The Motion Picture Exhibitors' League opens its 3rd convention at the same place and while the exposition is for the general interest of the public the convention is for proprietors of theaters. About 75 interesting exhibits are included in the exposition ranging from the proper kinds of fire extinguishers to use in a film theater to a complete theater itself. On the main floor are 4 fine play houses and 12 new films are shown daily.

Total receipts of the Suez canal for 1912 were $270,005,068, an increase of $363,692. The net profits were $17,94,023.

The Montana sapphire is the principal gem mineral mined in the U. S. in 1912, and the output was large both for use as gems and in mechanical appliances.

The opal was mined with most success in Nevada while there was continued prospecting for emeralds in North Carolina, but with modest success only. There continues to be a search for diamonds in the U. S. but thus far it has not had striking results. Rather large works are being carried on in Arkansas, but the total value of the diamond output for the country in 1912 was only $1500. There is another diamond region in Indiana in Morgan county, where in 35 years, 29 small stones have been found. Small diamonds have been found in California and Texas, but the total is not large enough to excite public attention. The total production of all gems and precious stones in the U. S. for 1912 was but $219,722, while the value of diamond imports alone was $2,865,868.

In addition to the U. S. postage stamp, advertising the coming national "Star Spangled Banner" centennial at Baltimore, the government will be asked to issue a special silver coin as it did for the Chicago World's Fair, if the plans of the Centennial Executive committee are carried out.

The first forest reserve on the watershed of the Ohio river, has been approved for purchase by the National Forest Reservation commission. It is included in what is known as the Monongahela area at the head of the Monongahela river and embraces two tracts aggregating 20,567 acres for which an average price of $3.06 an acre is to be paid.

Nebraska farmers are pleased with the alfalfa crop this year. The second cutting of the fields is now in progress. One man near Wymore, from a 50 acre field has sold from $50 to $75 worth of hay an acre every year for the last six years. His crop brought him more than $4000 last year. His first cutting this year has yielded more than 2.5 tons to the acre. On Riverside farm in the same locality a barn built last year to hold the entire crop this season is filled with the first cutting of alfalfa.

W. J. Bryan's Commoner is to be changed from a weekly to a monthly publication, the change taking place with this week's issue. The form of the publication will not be altered, but it will be doubled in size and the price will remain the same.

For two or three years the women's organizations in Orange, N. J., have complained of the high cost of living. The city, as an experiment set aside a square where any farmer could sell his produce. It was advertised among the farmers and the housewives and the results have been a success. 88 farmers have obtained permits to sell in the market. These permits cost nothing, but bind the farmer not to sell anything he has not produced. The farmers say they get better prices and housewives claim they do also.

ITCHING HUMORS.

There is Now a Way to Escape These Skin Torments.

Try This Remedy at Our Risk.
People sometimes say, "Well, that new remedy of yours, Saxo Salve, may cure recent cases of eczema, but I doubt if it will help me for I have had eczema a long time."

The fact is, Saxo Salve was devised as much for chronic skin trouble as for acute cases, and it is equally effective, though usually the chronic cases are more stubborn.

Numbers of cases right around here could be cited, showing that Saxo Salve is exactly the remarkable soothing and curative remedy for skin diseases that we claim.

The itching is stopped in a few moments after the first application, and improvement is seen in a few days.

All humors and disorders of the skin, whether scaly, crusted or in the very first stages, usually yield to Saxo Salve promptly. If it does not in your case your money will be returned. Blackmer & Tanager, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

PEACE BOND IS DEMANDED

Frank Wood of White Oak Charges Wesley Webb with Threatening His Life, Committing Assault and Battery, and Carrying Concealed Weapons—Trial Comes up Monday Morning Before Judge T. N. Craig

Wesley Webb, aged about 28 years, married, will be tried before Judge T. N. Craig Monday morning on charges of carrying concealed weapons and threatening to kill one Marco Wood, assault and battery on Frank Wood, and faces an application filed for a peace bond by Frank Wood, father of Marco Wood.

The charges were filed against Webb a day or two ago and Webb was brought in and his bond fixed at $100 in each case. He was released upon his own recognizance, promising to appear for trial Monday morning.

Frank Wood charges Webb with threatening his life and in the affidavit for a peace bond states that he fears Webb will kill him or his son.

Both men live in or near White Oak in Madison county, and it is said that Wood has been involved in previous trouble.

Considerable interest centers on the case in the White Oak neighborhood.

FLEMMING BOY GOES TO PRISON FOR LIFE

Pleads Guilty to Charge of Killing Mother and Brother.

Ironton, O., July 11.—Berkley Flemming, 20, charged with killing his mother and brother and burying their bodies on the home farm, was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Edward E. Corn, upon his plea of guilty to a charge of second degree murder. Flemming shot his brother in the back of the head and buried him under a foot of ground. On June 7 this year he shot his mother in the back of the head and then robbed her trunk of $160.

Flemming was under two indictments charging him with first degree murder, but upon agreement with Prosecuting Attorney L. K. Cooper he was permitted to enter the plea to the lesser offense. He heard the sentence unmoved and declined to say a word when asked by the court if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him.

Nw York, July 11.—Mrs. William Pollock, the pretty young wife of a retired captain in the British Royal artillery, sailed for England with the avowed intention of returning to the home which she deserted in a fit of temper a fortnight ago. She did not have to go back as a steerage passenger after all, her husband having decided to furnish her with the money for a first-class ticket back. "The whole trouble came about," said Mrs. Pollock, "through my having married out of my class. I was a poor girl, while Captain Pollock is of noble birth. We found it difficult to harmonize natal differences of temperament."

ELKS' NEW HOME ALMOST READY

Handsome Quarters in Hunt Block on South Main Street Will Be Completed Next Week and Elks are Greatly Pleased With New Lodge Parlors—Work of Moving Commenced This Morning.

Washington Lodge No. 129, B. P. O. Elks is moving into the new quarters in the R. C. Hunt building on South Main street, and within the next week or ten days the splendid home will be completed and ready for the first big meeting of the lodge.

Since the Elks' home in the Masonic temple was destroyed by fire, 18 months ago, they have had quarters over Tobin's Ice Cream parlors, and have been badly cramped for room. The work of moving to the new quarters commenced Friday morning.

Workmen are busy completing the interior of the new lodge parlors, which will be equal to any in the city, and which will soon be handsomely furnished throughout.

Entrance to the new home is reached by a broad, easy stairway, which opens into a large reception room with a big billiard room on the east end and the lodge parlor on the west, each reached by folding doors. Every part of the new home is most complete and finished in up-to-the-minute style. The floors are all hardwood, and each of the spacious rooms is well lighted and ventilated and equipped with central heat.

The ball room when completed will be one of the most attractive to be found in any Elk home in the state. Mr. Hunt is having the rooms finished to conform with the ideas of the committee in charge. The ceilings are steel, very beautifully decorated, while the walls are sand finished and decorated to match.

The Elks are justly proud of their new quarters.

BELL TAKES HAND WITHOUT DELAY

The names of the contractors were forwarded at once, and within the next few days they will probably have the opportunity of placing their bids.

Should Varsity Eight Distance Be Changed?

COURTNEY WOULD LESSEN IT

Cornell Coach Contends Three Miles Is Long Enough For Rowing Race, but Syracuse Did Not Get by Ithaca Crew Until Last Eighth.

By TOMMY CLARK.

It was a distinct surprise that Syracuse should win from Cornell in the varsity race at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., recently. Of course it is not reasonable to suppose that the Ithacans could win all the time, but their victories have been so numerous that they are generally looked upon as being invincible. Last year they practically swept the river. Cornell got both the freshmen eight oared race and the varsity fours.

An interesting fact was brought up after the result of the varsity race was known. It has been the contention of Courtney, the Cornell coach, that the race should be lessened to three miles. He has contended that the last part of the event did not matter so much, because the boat that was leading at the three-quarters mark was the one that would finish first. That has generally held true, but this time was the exception, as Syracuse did not get by Cornell until the last eighth of a mile had been reached.

Harvard's victory over Yale in the dual regatta recently was a big blow to the Elis. Yale had suffered five straight defeats prior to the recent races and had at considerable expense gone to England for shells and coaches in the hope that it might beat the Crimson. Just what effect the triple defeat will have on rowing at Yale is problematical at this time.

Yale usually sticks to a thing with dogged determination until it has been proved good or very bad. That leads to the belief that the English system will be given another trial at least. However, that is not by any means a certainty.

The difference in the stroke of the Yale and Harvard crews was noticeable to every one who witnessed the races. Yale reached farther forward and pulled farther back, but rowed more strokes to the minute than Harvard for practically the entire distance. Therefore it was not surprising that the Elis were exhausted when the finish line was reached, while the Crimson appeared fairly fresh.

The Blue oarsmen were rowing in a new shell, seated in a new way, with new oars in their hands instead of the locks common in America. Probably they will learn the English system. However, it seems to be the general belief that it is too big a test for men who only devote about four years to the sport. To become accustomed to the British style it is thought that a man must start early in life and never change.

Heinie Pletz, the veteran player, now coach of the young pitchers and catchers of the St. Louis Nationals, says that Bob Harmon, the Cardinals' crack young pitcher, will be the star heaver of the National league in another year.

"For genuine stuff on a fast ball I think Bob has got any twirler in the National league beaten to a frazzle," said Pletz. "That big boy has some

BOB HARMON, CARDINALS' CRACK PITCHER. "foolers. I never realized what a hop he had on his fast one until I began handling his shoots. Speed alone will never carry a pitcher to victory. He must have a jump on his fast ball. There is a nasty twist to Harmon's fast one as it shoots across the plate. When Bob has that curve breaking right the average batsman might as well throw away his stick. It is almost unhitatable."

EDDIE PLANK, ATHLETICS' VET PITCHER NOW THE IDOL OF PHILADELPHIA FANS

Philadelphia, July 11.—Eddie Plank is now the idol of the American league fans here. This enthusiasm is due to the fact that the veteran left handed pitcher has done much to keep the Athletics in front in the pennant race. Since the start of the 1913 campaign Eddie has twirled sensational ball. He won twelve out of his first fourteen games pitched in masterly style. This is Plank's fourteenth year in big league baseball. If Bender and Plank continue to pitch grand ball the Athletics should win the pennant without much trouble.

DAUBERT'S REACH AIDS TEAMMATES

In Jake Daubert the Brooklyn team has the greatest little animated tele scope in baseball today.

Six feet one inch in height, the first sacker in the Dodgers' possession can and does swing many a wild toss and still manages to keep his foot on the bag to the general discomfiture of the batsman trying to get on the initial corner. It takes a mighty wild heave to draw Daubert from the bag.

It is figured that Jake can get a throw nine feet from the bag when the ball comes to the right, stretching his full length and still hooking the station with his toe.

Having to reach across his body with his gloved hand when a ball is thrown to the left side of the bag, he naturally loses some distance in pulling these heaves, but he can get those that come within eight feet and two or three inches. Of course it takes some to be the worst the Dodger shaves out his left hand and, although he throws a throw with it, in this way getting the benefit of a nine foot reach.

When reaching into the diamond for a low heave Daubert has another telescope stunt to do. Of course he does not have to stretch quite as far to get a low one, for he can judge his ball and take it on the bound if there is time to wait for it.

Going after a high one is one of the best stunts that Daubert pulls. Naturally when the ball is thrown a mile or two over his roof he cannot keep his foot on the bag and get it, but he goes up like an aviator after an altitude record, and the ball has to be ten feet above the ground to get by him safely.

Some Brooklyn admirers of the great first baseman think that he goes a lot higher than this, but a two foot leap straight up with the body extended is some hop when it is remembered that the athlete has to take it from a standing start and has not time to prepare for the spring.

PUTS SPEAKER ON TOP.

Washington's Pilot Says Boston Player Is Greatest Ever.

Tris Speaker is the greatest outfielder the game has ever produced according to Manager Clark Griffith of the Washington team. In all his many years' experience Griffith says he has never seen an outfielder who is classed with Speaker.

"Speaker is the only outfielder I have ever seen who knows how to play center field," remarked Griffith. "He can go to either side for drives which no other fielder would reach, while it is next to impossible to drop a Texas leaguer into his territory. What is more, he is right behind every play on the field."

THIS SPEAKER

The infield and saves his team many runs by backing up properly.

"I have seen all the great fielders of the past twenty-five years, and I must confess that not a single one of them can be classed with Speaker. He is really the whole Boston team. Without him Boston would have a hard time finishing in the first division. It was Speaker who won the pennant for the Red Sox last season. He is one of the most marvelous players that the game has ever produced, and there is not a fielder in the game today who can hold a candle to him."

Referendum Frauds Continue Leading Topic at Capital

30,000 signatures to the referendum petition on the Green bill, alleged to have been obtained in Cincinnati, were placed on the petitions in a room at the Grand hotel.

In Fairfield county, where 205 signatures were obtained, all but 18 were found to be fictitious. Sixteen were forgeries. Many of the streets named are pure fakes. Not a single one of the 218 signatures alleged to have been obtained in Noble county is said to be genuine.

Attorney General Hogan announced that he will advise Secretary of State Graves to throw out every petition where the affidavit has been made falsely, even though only one or more names on the petition are forgeries.

GONGWER TALKS

Says Other Referendum Petitions Will Be Filed.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—"There is but one motive in all these reckless charges being spread broadcast. That is to prevent the filing of referendum petitions on the Warnes and Kilpatrick laws." This was the statement of C. S. Gongwer, clerk of the Ohio Equity association. "The tax spenders at Columbus hope by these measures to frighten and intimidate good citizens. But they will not succeed. There is no doubt that the referendum on the Green act will stand and that referendum petitions on the Warnes and Kilpatrick laws will be filed, despite anything that may be said or done. The tax spenders know they are faking when they talk about guilty higher-ups. What's more, they used every fraudulent means to prevent us from securing names."

Challenges Lipscomb's Story.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—A. B. Lea, former public service director of Cleveland, mentioned as being implicated in the alleged confession of Ralph T. Lipscomb of Newark, denied any connection with the circulation of petitions, except as a volunteer. He denied that he used an assumed name at Mt. Vernon.

Kibler Enters Denial.

Cincinnati, O., July 11.—A statement was given out by Charles E. Kibler of Cleveland, in which he denied knowledge of any fraud in connection with referendum petitions.

PRETTY AND WEALTHY MISS GIBBONY IS ONLY WOMAN GAME WARDEN IN COUNTRY; SHE IS TRUE BIRD LOVER

Mobile, Ala., July 11.—Miss Norma F. Gibboney, a society girl of this place who is a nature lover, is the only woman game warden in America. She was recently appointed at her own request so that she could protect the birds in her home place. Miss Gibboney has traveled extensively and is a crack shot. She has made a special study of game birds and has stocked her district with several rare varieties. Pretty and wealthy, Miss Gibboney would rather spend her time protecting her favorite birds from reckless slaughter by negroes than she would in social frivolities.
